The appointment must be in a form to permit recording in the State of California.
  - (4) Ineligible Persons. No clerk, deputy clerk, marshal, magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, district judge, attorney, or other officer of this court will be accepted as surety upon any bond or undertaking in any action or proceeding in this court.
  - (5) Cash in Lieu of Bond. Cash may be deposited with the clerk in lieu of any bond or undertaking requiring a personal or corporate surety. - (d) Consent to Summary Adjudication of Obligation.
- (1) A bond or undertaking presented for filing must contain the consent and agreement for the surety that in case of default or contumacy on the part of the principal or surety, the court may upon 14 days notice proceed summarily and render a judgment in accordance with the obligation undertaken and issue a writ of execution upon that judgment.

- (2) An indemnitee or party in interest seeking a judgment on a bond or undertaking must proceed by Motion for Summary Adjudication of Obligation and Execution. Therefore, an application for the employment of counsel for a debtor in possession should be filed as promptly as possible after the commencement of the case, and an application for employment of any other professional person should be filed as promptly as possible after such person has been engaged.
- (F) The substitution of an attorney must also comply with LBR 2091-1(b).

(2) Notice of Application.

- (A) Notice of an application by the debtor (if such application is required), debtor in possession, or trustee, to retain a professional person must be filed and served, in accordance with LBR 2002-2(a) and LBR 9036-1, on the United States trustee, the debtor (if a trustee has been appointed), the creditors' committee or the 20 largest unsecured creditors if no committee has been appointed, any other committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002.

(c) Interim Statements and Operating Reports.

- (1) The debtor in possession or chapter 11 trustee must file with the court a copy of each monthly interim statement and operating report submitted to the United States trustee from the date the chapter 11 case is commenced until the date a plan is confirmed or the case is dismissed or converted to another chapter under title 11.
- (2) Each interim statement and operating report must be filed on the date that such documents are submitted to the United States trustee, but not later than the 15th day of the month following expiration of the month which is the subject of the statement or report.

LBR 2016-1. COMPENSATION OF PROFESSIONAL PERSONS*(a) Interim Fee Applications.

- (1) Form of Fee Application. An application for interim fees incurred or costs advanced by an attorney, accountant or other professional person, and a trustee or examiner must contain the following:
- (A) A brief narrative history and report concerning the status of the case, including the following:
- (i) Chapter 11. Applicant must describe the general operations of the debtor, stating whether the business of the debtor, if any, is being operated at a profit or loss, whether the business has sufficient operating cash flow, whether a plan has been filed, and if not, the prospects for reorganization and the anticipated date for the filing of a plan.
  - (ii) Chapter 7. Applicant must report the status of administration of the estate, discussing the actions taken to liquidate property of the estate, the property remaining to be administered, the reasons the estate is not in a position to be closed, and whether it is feasible to pay an interim dividend to creditors.
  - (iii) All Cases. Applicant must disclose the amount of money on hand in the estate and the estimated amount of other accrued expenses of administration. At the hearing on an application for interim fees, the applicant should be prepared to supplement the application by declaration or by testimony to inform the court of the current financial status of the debtor's estate.
  - (iv) Multiple Fee Applications. If more than 1 application for interim fees in a case is noticed for hearing at the same date and time, the narrative history provided in one of the applications may be incorporated by reference into the other interim fee applications to be heard contemporaneously by the court.
  - (v) Exception. A fee application submitted by an auctioneer, real estate broker, or appraiser does not have to comply with subsection (A) of this rule, except that auctioneers, unless otherwise ordered by the court, must file the report required by FRBP 6004(f) prior to receiving final compensation.

  - (i) Date service was rendered.
  - (ii) Description of service. It is not sufficient to merely state “Research,” “Telephone Call,” “Court Appearance,” etc. Applicant must refer to the particular person, motion, discrete task performed, and other matters related to such service. A summary that lists a number of services under only 1 time period is not satisfactory.
  - (iii) Amount of time spent. A summary is not adequate. Time spent must be accounted for in tenths of an hour and broken down in detail by the specific task performed. Lumping of services is not satisfactory.
  - (iv) Identification of person who rendered service. If more than 1 person’s services are included in the application, applicant must identify the person who performed each item of service.
- (F) An application that seeks reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses must include a summary listing of all expenses by category (i.e., long distance telephone, photocopy costs, facsimile charges, travel, messenger and computer research). As to each unusual or costly expense item, the application must state:

The application must contain a summary indicating for each attorney by name:

- (ii) The total hours in the application for which compensation is sought; and
    - (iii) The total fee requested in the application.
  - (H) A description of the professional education and experience of each of the individuals rendering services, including identification of the professional school attended, year of graduation, year admitted to practice, publications or other achievements, and explanation of any specialized background or expertise in bankruptcy-related matters.
  - (I) If the hourly rate has changed during the period covered by the application, the application must specify the rate that applies to the particular hours for which compensation is sought.
  - (J) A separately filed declaration from the client indicating that the client has reviewed the fee application and has no objection to it. If the client refuses to provide such a declaration, the professional must file a declaration describing the steps that were taken to obtain the client's declaration and the client's response thereto.
  - (K) A statement that the applicant has reviewed the requirements of this rule and that the application complies with this rule.
- (2) Notice of Interim Fee Application and Hearing.
- (A) In all cases where the employment of more than one professional person has been authorized by the court, a professional person who files an application for interim fees must give other professional persons employed in the case not less than 45 days notice of the date and time of the hearing. The notice of hearing must further state:

“Other professional persons retained pursuant to court approval may also seek approval of interim fees at this hearing, provided that they file and serve their applications in a timely manner. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, hearings on interim fee applications will not be scheduled less than 120 days apart.”
  - (B) Applicant must serve not less than 21 days notice of the hearing on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), the creditors' committee or the 20 largest unsecured creditors if no committee has been appointed, any other committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, the United States trustee, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. The notice must identify the professional person requesting fees, the period covered by the interim application, the specific amounts requested for fees and reimbursement of expenses, the date, time and place of the hearing, and the deadline for opposition papers.

- (C) In addition to the notice, a copy of the application, together with all supporting papers, must be served on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, and the United States trustee. A copy of the complete application must also be promptly furnished upon specific request to any other party in interest.
- (3) Objections. Any opposition or other responsive paper by the United States trustee or other party in interest must be served and filed at least 14 days prior to the hearing in the form required by LBR 9013-1(f).
- (b) Motions to Approve Compensation Procedures in Chapter 11 Cases, Including Monthly Draw-down and Contingency or Success Fee Agreements. A professional person employed in a chapter 11 case may request approval for and modifications of draw-down procedures and an order allowing payment of interim compensation more frequently than once every 120 days.
- (c) Final Fee Application.
  - (1) Who Must File. The trustee, if any, and each professional person employed in the case must file a final fee application.
  - (2) Contents. An application for allowance and payment of final fees and expenses must contain the information required of an interim fee application under LBR 2016-1(a)(1).
  - (3) When Filed; Notice Required in Chapter 11 Cases.
    - (A) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a final fee application by the trustee, if any, and each professional person employed in a chapter 11 case must be filed and set for hearing as promptly as possible after confirmation of a plan.
    - (B) A final fee application must cover all of the services performed in the case, not just the last period for which fees are sought, and must seek approval of all prior interim fee awards.
    - (C) Applicant must serve not less than 21 days notice of the hearing on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, the United States trustee, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. The notice must identify the person or entity requesting a final allowance of fees and expenses, the period covered by the final application, the specific amounts requested for fees and reimbursement of expenses, the date, time and place of the hearing, and the deadline for opposition papers.
    - (D) In addition to the notice, a copy of the application, together with all supporting papers, must be served on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, and the United States trustee. A copy of the complete application must also be promptly furnished upon specific request to any other party in interest.

(4) When Filed; Notice Required in Chapter 7 Cases.

- (A) A chapter 7 trustee must give at least 30 days written notice of intent to file a final report and account to the attorney for the debtor, the trustee's attorney and accountant, if any, and any other entity entitled to claim payment payable as an administrative expense of the estate.
- (B) A professional person seeking compensation must file and serve an application for allowance and payment of final fees and expenses on the trustee within 21 days of the date of the mailing of the trustee's notice. The failure to timely to file an application may be deemed a waiver of compensation.
- (C) All final fee applications by professional persons must be set for hearing with the chapter 7 trustee's final application for allowance and payment of fees and expenses. Notice of a final fee application must be given by the chapter 7 trustee as part of the notice of the hearing on the trustee's request for compensation. A separate notice by the applicant is not required.

(5) Objections. Any opposition or other responsive paper by the United States trustee or other party in interest must be served and filed at least 14 days prior to the hearing in the form required by LBR 9013-1(f).

(d) Fee Examiner. The court may, either sua sponte or on the motion of a party in interest, exercise its discretion to appoint a fee examiner to review fee applications and make recommendations to the court for approval.

- (6) Moving or storage of estate assets;
- (7) Teletransmission;
- (8) Travel charges for trustee (includes lodging, meals, mileage and parking);
- (9) Bank charges for research or copies;

- (10) Court reporting fees;
- (11) Delivery of documents;
- (12) Expedited mail;
- (13) Filing and process serving;
- (14) Notary fees;
- (15) Recording fees;
- (16) Deposition/transcript fees;
- (17) Witness fees;
- (18) Locate and move assets;
- (19) Prepare litigation support documents;
- (20) Insurance;
- (21) Locksmith;
- (22) Rent;
- (23) Security services; and
- (24) Utilities.

(b) Bond Premiums and Taxes. In addition to payments that may be made from the Authorized Allocation, the trustee may pay during the ordinary course of the trustee's administration of an estate:

- (1) Bond premiums required by 11 U.S.C. § 322(a); and
- (2) Obligations to taxing agencies arising under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(2), provided the estate is and is likely to remain administratively solvent.

(c) Expenses for Preparation of Tax Returns. The trustee may, by a single application, seek authorization to employ and pay a tax preparer a flat fee (not to exceed $750 unless the court orders otherwise) for preparation of tax returns for the estate. If the court grants such application, the trustee may pay the flat fee so ordered without further application or order. This amount is in addition to payments that may be made from the Authorized Allocation.

(d) Emergency Expenses. The trustee may exceed the Authorized Allocation to pay emergency expenses, without prior court approval, to protect assets of the estate that might otherwise be lost or destroyed. Emergency expenses are limited to:

- (1) Charges for storage of the debtor's records to prevent the destruction of those records and related necessary cartage costs;
- (2) Insurance premiums to prevent liability to the estate;
- (3) Locksmith charges to secure the debtor's real property or business; and
- (4) Security services to safeguard the debtor's real or personal property.

If the trustee disburses more than the Authorized Allocation to pay emergency expenses and other expenses for which the Authorized Allocation may be used, the trustee must file and serve a cash disbursement motion, as described in subsection (f) of this rule, within 7 days after such expenses are paid.

- (e) Procedures for Employment of Paraprofessionals and Payment of Paraprofessional Fees and Expenses. A trustee must obtain court approval to employ and to pay a paraprofessional.

- (1) Definition. The term “paraprofessional” includes all persons or entities other than “professionals” who perform services at the trustee’s request and seek payment for services and expenses directly from the bankruptcy estate, including an agent, a field representative, an adjuster, and a tax preparer.
- (2) Employment. A trustee may seek court approval to employ a paraprofessional by filing an employment application using court-approved form F 2016-2.1. The court’s approval of the employment of any paraprofessional is not a judicial determination as to whether services of the paraprofessional constitute “trustee services.” The following is a nonexclusive list of services that the court deems “trustee services” subject to the limitation on compensation contained in 11 U.S.C. § 326(a):
  - (A) Review schedules;
  - (B) Acceptance and qualification as a trustee;
  - (C) Routine investigation regarding location and status of assets;
  - (D) Initial contact with lessors, secured creditors, assignee for benefit creditors, etc., if same can be accomplished from office;
  - (E) Turnover or inspection of documents, such as bank documents;
  - (F) UCC search review;
  - (G) Recruit and contract appraisers, brokers, and professionals;
  - (H) Mail forwarding notices;
  - (I) Routine collection of accounts receivable;
  - (J) Letters regarding compliance with LBR 2016-1;
  - (K) Conduct 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) examinations;
  - (L) Routine objections to exemption;
  - (M) Routine motions to dismiss;
  - (N) 11 U.S.C. § 707(b) referral to United States trustee;
  - (O) Routine documentation of notices of sale, abandonment, compromise, etc.;
  - (P) Appear at hearings on routine motions;
  - (Q) Review and execute certificates of sale, deed, or other transfer documents;
  - (R) Prepare and file notifications of asset case;
  - (S) Prepare and file cash disbursement motions and necessary attachments;
  - (T) Prepare exhibits to operating reports;
  - (U) Prepare quarterly bond reports;
  - (V) Prepare trustee’s interim reports;
  - (W) Routine claims review and objection;
  - (X) Prepare and file final reports and accounts and related orders;
  - (Y) Prepare motions to abandon or destroy books and records;
  - (Z) Prepare and file FRBP 3011 reports;
  - (AA) Prepare and file notices and motions to abandon assets and related orders;
  - (BB) Attend sales;
  - (CC) Monitor litigation;

- (DD) Answer routine creditor correspondence and phone calls;
- (EE) Prepare and file applications to employ paraprofessionals;
- (FF) Review and comment on professional fee applications;
- (GG) Participate in audits;
- (HH) Answer United States trustee questions;
- (II) Close and open bank accounts;
- (JJ) Verify proposed disbursements;
- (KK) Post receipts and disbursements;
- (LL) Prepare details and calculations for payment of dividend;
- (MM) Prepare dividend checks;
- (NN) Organize and research bills;
- (OO) Prepare checks for the trustee's signature;
- (PP) Prepare internal cash summary sheets;
- (QQ) Reconcile bank accounts;
- (RR) Prepare and make deposits; and
- (SS) Additional routine work necessary for administration of the estate.

(3) Reimbursement of Fees and Expenses. A trustee may pay a paraprofessional only upon specific order of the court.

- (A) If the paraprofessional or trustee contends that the paraprofessional's services are not "trustee services," the trustee or paraprofessional must present evidence to support that contention. Absent adequate proof, the court may find that the services of the paraprofessional are "trustee services" subject to the limitation on compensation under 11 U.S.C. § 326(a).
- (B) If a trustee refuses or neglects to file a fee application for the paraprofessional, the paraprofessional may file a separate fee application pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330. In addition to fulfilling the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 330, FRBP 2014 and these rules, the paraprofessional's fee application must include: (i) a declaration explaining why a separate fee application is necessary; and (ii) evidence establishing which services are "trustee services" and which are not. The paraprofessional must serve any separate fee application on the trustee, debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), the United States trustee, and all professionals and other paraprofessionals employed in the case, and must give notice of the application to all creditors.

(f) Cash Disbursements Motion.

- (1) Filing and Service. If the trustee wishes to pay expenses not authorized by this rule from estate funds, the trustee must file a cash disbursements motion to obtain court approval of payments for emergency expenses and all other expenses the trustee deems necessary for effective administration of the case. The cash disbursements motion must be in substantially the same form as court-approved form F 2016-2.2, Trustee's Cash Disbursements Motion. The trustee must serve the cash disbursements motion on the debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), the United States trustee, holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. Any objection to the cash disbursements motion must be filed and served on the trustee and trustee's counsel, if any, within 14 days from the date the cash disbursements motion is served. The trustee must file the cash disbursements motion with the court within 21 days after service of the motion. If a timely objection has not been filed, the trustee must include a declaration to that effect. If a timely objection is filed, the trustee must set the matter for hearing and give written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the objecting party, debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), and the United States trustee. The trustee may seek an expedited hearing pursuant to LBR 9075-1.

- (2) Hearing. The court may set a hearing on a cash disbursements motion regardless of whether an objection is filed. However, if the court does not advise the trustee of a hearing on the motion within 7 days after the motion is filed, the trustee may disburse funds from the estate to pay the expenses referred to in the motion to the extent the trustee deems it necessary, pending an order of the court. If, thereafter, the trustee receives notice that the court has issued an order in which the cash disbursement motion has been disapproved in whole or in part, or that the court has set a hearing, the trustee must stop paying the expenses for which authorization was sought in the motion or otherwise comply with the provisions of the order. The trustee may file a motion for reconsideration pursuant to LBR 9013-4.
- (3) Personal Liability and Disclosure. Except as provided in this rule, a trustee who makes a disbursement without prior court approval may be personally liable to the estate for the amount of the disbursement. All disbursements made by the trustee pursuant to this rule must be disclosed in the trustee's final report and in all applications for fees or costs by the trustee and by paraprofessionals employed in the case by the trustee.
- (g) Nonexclusive Remedy. Nothing in this rule precludes the trustee from seeking court approval to disburse estate funds by way of a noticed motion filed and served pursuant to LBR 9013-1.

LBR 2070-1. CHAPTER 7 OPERATING CASES

- (a) Periods Not Exceeding 30 Days. For a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of the trustee's appointment, a trustee may operate the business of a chapter 7 debtor and pay any actual and necessary expenses from the Authorized Allocation permitted under LBR 2016-2(a) without a court order.
- (b) Periods Exceeding 30 Days. To operate the business beyond such 30-day period, the trustee must, prior to expiration of the 30-day period, file and serve a motion for authorization to operate the debtor's business under 11 U.S.C. § 721. The motion must state the approximate length of time the trustee intends to operate the business and be supported by evidence that justifies operation of the business and satisfies the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 721.

- (c) Authorization Not to Exceed 1 Year. The trustee may seek approval to operate the debtor's business for a period not exceeding 1 year.
- (d) Disbursement of Estate Funds Pending Authorization. The court may hold a hearing on the trustee's motion after the expiration of the 30-day period, but the trustee may not disburse estate funds other than the Authorized Allocation after the 30-day period except upon specific order of the court.
- (e) Effect of Order. An order authorizing the trustee to operate the debtor's business does not excuse the trustee from obtaining appropriate authorization for cash disbursements under LBR 2016-2(f), except to the extent that the operating order expressly approves specific expenditures from the estate.

LBR 2072-1. NOTICE TO OTHER COURTS

- (a) Notice of Bankruptcy Petition. Notice of the filing of a bankruptcy petition in this district must be given by the debtor or debtor's counsel, at the earliest possible date, to:
  - (1) The clerk of any federal or state court in which the debtor is a party to pending litigation or other proceedings; and
  - (2) The federal or state judge to whom the matter is assigned, all counsel of record in the matter, and to all parties to the action not represented by counsel.
- (b) Effect of Not Giving Notice. The failure to give the notice required by subsection (a) of this rule may constitute cause for annulment of the stay imposed by 11 U.S.C. §§ 362, 922, 1201, or 1301, or may result in the imposition of sanctions or other relief.

LBR 2081-1. CHAPTER 11 CASES

- (a) Motions Requiring Emergency or Expedited Relief. Subject to FRBP 6003, the following motions may be heard pursuant to LBR 9075-1 either as an emergency motion or on shortened time:
  - (1) Motion to limit notice;
  - (2) Motion to extend time to file schedules and statement of financial affairs;
  - (3) Utility motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 366;
  - (4) Motion to establish procedures for handling multiple reclamation claims;
  - (5) Request for regularly scheduled hearing dates. Upon request of a debtor, the court may establish a fixed date and time for hearing all motions and other matters in a chapter 11 case. Once ordered, the dates and time, and exceptions, if any, will be made available through the clerk's office and posted in advance on the court's website;

- (6) Motion to pay prepetition payroll and to honor prepetition employment procedures. The motion must be supported by evidence that establishes:
- (A) The employees are still employed;
  - (B) The necessity for payment;
  - (C) The benefit of the procedures;
  - (D) The prospect of reorganization;
  - (E) Whether the employees are insiders;
  - (F) Whether the employees' claims are within the limits established by 11 U.S.C. § 507; and that
  - (G) The payment will not render the estate administratively insolvent;
- (7) Motion to honor and comply with customer obligations and deposits. The motion must be supported by evidence that relief is essential to business operations and customer confidence or that the estate may suffer postpetition damages that would prejudice creditors, the reorganization, or the value of property of the estate;
- (8) Motion to pay prepetition taxes. The motion must be supported by evidence that establishes:
- (A) The necessity for payment;
  - (B) The prospect of reorganization;
  - (C) The means to pay;
  - (D) That the taxes to be paid are entitled to priority pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 507; and that
  - (E) The payment will not render the estate administratively insolvent;
- (9) Motion for emergency use of cash collateral, debtor in possession financing, or cash management;
- (10) Motion for order establishing procedures for sale of estate's assets;
- (11) Appointment of a patient care ombudsman under 11 U.S.C. § 333; and
- (12) Other motions where special circumstances exist. The motion must be supported by evidence that exigent circumstances exist justifying an expedited hearing.

- (b) Prepackaged Plans. A hearing on a motion for order confirming a chapter 11 plan upon which voting was conducted before commencement of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1126(b) must be scheduled, if practicable, no more than 30 days after the order for relief.
- (c) Severance Compensation or Employee Incentive Motions.
  - (1) Notice. A motion for approval of a severance compensation package or employee incentive program must be heard on regular notice, absent exigent circumstances.
  - (2) Standard. The motion must state whether the employee is an insider. If so, the motion must state whether the insider has a bona fide job offer from another business at the same or greater rate of compensation and establish the elements of 11 U.S.C. § 503(c).

LBR 2085-1. CHAPTER 15 CASES

- (a) Chapter 15 Motions – Form and Service.
  - (1) A motion under chapter 15 must comply with FRBP 9013.
  - (2) The motion must be served on the 20 largest unsecured creditors located in the United States, the administrator appointed in any foreign proceeding with respect to the debtor or a member of the same corporate group as the debtor, the 20 largest unsecured creditors in each such foreign proceeding, all United States secured creditors, all secured creditors in foreign countries who are known to the movant, persons requesting special notice under LBR 2002-1(a), and the United States trustee. Furthermore, every such motion other than one which may be considered ex parte must be served by the moving party on the trustee, if the motion arises in a case filed under chapter 7, 9, 11, 12, or 13.
- (b) Authorization to Act in a Foreign Country.
  - (1) Every trustee or other entity (including an examiner) appointed in a bankruptcy case pending in the United States (except for a case under chapter 15) must obtain authority under 11 U.S.C. § 1505 before acting in a foreign country.
  - (2) Authorization to act in a foreign country pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1505 must be made on motion of the trustee or other entity seeking such authorization. The motion must be made in compliance with FRBP 9013, and must be served as provided in subsection (a) of this rule.
  - (3) An order pursuant to this provision may be granted after notice and a hearing.
- (c) Requirement to Obtain Order for Recognition. Any foreign representative seeking to appear in any United States court or the court of any State in the United States must first obtain an order for recognition under 11 U.S.C. § 1517. No such order is required if the sole purpose of the appearance is to collect accounts receivable on behalf of the foreign debtor.

- (d) Motion for Comity or Cooperation. A request for comity or cooperation under 11 U.S.C. § 1509(b)(3) must be made by motion pursuant to subsection (a) of this rule.
- (e) Advice of Foreign Representative's Intent to Commence a Case Under 11 U.S.C. § 1511. Any foreign representative who intends to commence a case under 11 U.S.C. § 1511(a) must file a notice of intent to commence a domestic bankruptcy case with the court that has granted a petition for recognition under 11 U.S.C. § 1515. The notice must be served as provided by subsection (a) of this rule.
- (f) Filing Proof of Claim or Equity Security Interest by Foreign Creditor or Equity Security Holder in Chapter 7 Liquidation, Chapter 9 Municipality, or Chapter 11 Reorganization Case.
- (1) This subsection applies in all chapter 7, 9, and 11 cases to each creditor and equity security holder that does not have an address in the United States.
  - (2) Every secured creditor described in subsection (f)(1) of this rule must file a proof of claim. This obligation applies to every such creditor claiming rights in rem against property of the debtor (whether moveable or immovable), or holding a claim based on a registration in a public register or based on intellectual property (such as a patent or trademark).
  - (3) The filing of a claim or statement of interest under FRBP 3003 by a foreign creditor or security interest holder must be made as provided by that rule.
  - (4) Notice to a foreign creditor or security interest holder must be given at least 90 days before the deadline for filing a claim or notice of interest, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
  - (5) Notice of a deadline to file a claim or security interest under FRBP 3003 must be given in the official language of the country to which the notice is directed. In addition, the notice must be delivered by the same means that domestic notices and legal proceedings are delivered in that country, unless the court orders otherwise.
- (g) Application for Recognition.
- (1) A foreign representative's petition for recognition must be filed with the bankruptcy court in the proper venue as provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1410. In addition, it must be set for hearing pursuant to subsection (a) of this rule upon notice as required by LBR 9013-1 or, if applicable, LBR 9075-1.
  - (2) A petition for recognition must be served pursuant to subsection (a) of this rule.
  - (3) If a petition for recognition requests the recognition of a foreign proceeding as a foreign main proceeding, the petition must be accompanied by evidence of the location of the debtor's registered office, or the debtor's residence in the case of an individual. All such documents must be translated into English pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1515(d).

- (4) A party contending that a foreign proceeding is not a foreign main proceeding must file evidence complying with FRBP 7056 in support of the party's contention.
- (5) A party seeking to rebut the presumption of 11 U.S.C. § 1516(c), that the debtor's registered office or habitual residence is the center of the debtor's main interests, must file evidence complying with FRBP 7056 in opposition to such a determination. Should it appear from the affidavits or declarations of such a party that the party cannot for reasons stated present evidence essential to justify the party's opposition, the court may order a continuance to permit evidence to be obtained or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just. When a motion for recognition of a foreign main proceeding is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the adverse party's pleading, but the adverse party's response, supported by admissible evidence, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.
- (6) If the court finds that there is a genuine issue for trial on the recognition of a foreign main proceeding, the court will conduct an evidentiary hearing at the earliest practicable time, consistent with 11 U.S.C. § 1517(c).

(h) Relief from Automatic Stay; Prohibiting or Conditioning Use, Sale, or Lease of Property; Use of Cash Collateral.

- (1) A motion for relief from stay, or prohibiting or conditioning the use, sale, or lease of property must be made pursuant to FRBP 4001(a). A motion for use of cash collateral must be made pursuant to FRBP 4001(b). A motion pursuant to this paragraph must be served pursuant to subsection (a) of this rule.
- (2) A motion for relief from the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. §§ 361 and 362, as provided by 11 U.S.C. § 1520, must be made pursuant to FRBP 4001(a).

(i) Adversary Proceedings under FRBP 7001.

- (1) FRBP 7001 applies to adversary proceedings under chapter 15.
- (2) In addition to those proceedings listed in FRBP 7001, the following proceedings in a chapter 15 case are adversary proceedings governed by FRBP 7001, et. seq.:
  - (A) A proceeding to recover money or property under 11 U.S.C. §§ 549 or 552;
  - (B) A proceeding to obtain an injunction or other equitable relief under 11 U.S.C. § 1519;

- (n) Recognition of Domestic Case as a Main or Non-main Proceeding.

  - (2) A motion for designation of a case as a main proceeding pursuant to subsection (n)(1) must be supported by evidence that the center of the debtor's main interests is located in the United States.
  - (3) A motion for designation of a case as a non-main proceeding pursuant to subsection (n)(1) must be supported by evidence that the debtor has an establishment in the United States.
- (o) Final Report by Foreign Representative. A foreign representative who has been recognized pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1517 must file a final report when the purpose of the representative's appearance in a court in the United States is completed. A representative must report completely and accurately on the nature and results of the representative's activities in the court in the United States.
- (p) Foreign Authorities. Any paper filed with the court that cites a foreign or international authority in a case under the Bankruptcy Code must attach a copy of the international foreign authority, with a translation into English.
- (q) Court-to-court Communication.
  - (1) A court may communicate with a foreign court in connection with matters relating to proceedings before it for the purposes of coordinating and harmonizing proceedings before it with those in the other State.
  - (2) A court may communicate with an administrator in a foreign State or an authorized representative of the court in that State in connection with the coordination and harmonization of the proceedings before it with the proceedings in the other State.

- (3) A court may permit a duly authorized administrator to communicate with a foreign court directly, subject to the approval of the foreign court, or through an administrator in the other jurisdiction or through an authorized representative of the foreign court on such terms as the court considers appropriate.
- (4) A court may receive communications from a foreign court or from an authorized representative of the foreign court or from a foreign administrator. The court may respond directly if the communication is from a foreign court (subject to subsection (q)(6) of this rule) in the case of two-way communications and may respond directly or through an authorized representative of the court or through a duly authorized administrator if the communication is from a foreign administrator.
- (5) Communications from a court to a foreign court may take place by or through:
  - (A) Sending or transmitting copies of formal orders, judgments, opinions, reasons for decision, endorsements, transcripts of proceedings, or other documents directly to the foreign court and providing advance notice to counsel for affected parties in such manner as the court considers appropriate;
  - (B) Directing counsel, a foreign administrator or a trustee to transmit or deliver copies of documents, pleadings, affidavits, factums, briefs or other documents that are filed or to be filed with the court to the foreign court in such fashion as may be appropriate and providing advance notice to counsel for affected parties in such manner as the court considers appropriate; and
  - (C) Participating in two-way communications with the foreign court by telephone or video conference call or other electronic means, subject to subsection (q)(6) of this rule.
- (6) In the event of communications between the courts in accordance with subsections (q)(1) and (4) by means of telephone or video conference call or other electronic means, unless otherwise directed by either of the two courts:
  - (A) Counsel for all affected parties may participate in person during the communication. Advance notice of the communication must be given to all parties in accordance with the rules of procedure applicable in each court;
  - (B) The communication between the courts must be on the record; and
  - (C) The courts and judges in each court may communicate fully with each other to establish appropriate arrangements for the communication without the necessity for participation by counsel unless otherwise ordered by either of the courts.

- (7) In the event of communications between the court and an authorized representative of the foreign court or a foreign administrator in accordance with subsections (q)(2) and (4) by means of telephone or video conference call or other electronic means, unless otherwise directed by the court:
  - (A) Counsel for all affected parties may participate in person during the communication. Advance notice of the communication must be given to all parties in accordance with the rules of procedure applicable in each court;
  - (B) The communication must be on the record; and
  - (C) Judges in each court may communicate fully with the authorized representative of the foreign court or the foreign administrator to establish appropriate arrangements for the communication without necessity for participation by counsel unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- (8) A court may conduct a joint hearing with another court. In connection with any such joint hearing, the following provisions apply, unless otherwise ordered or unless otherwise provided in any previously approved protocol applicable to such joint hearing:
  - (A) Each court must be able to simultaneously hear the proceedings in the other court;
  - (B) Evidentiary or written materials filed or to be filed in one court must be transmitted to the other court or made available electronically in a publicly accessible system in advance of the hearing. Transmittal of such material to the other court or its public availability in an electronic system must not subject the party filing the material in one court to the jurisdiction of the other court;
  - (C) Submissions or applications by the representative of any party should be made only to the court in which the representative making the submissions is appearing unless the representative is specifically given permission by the other court to make submissions to it;
  - (D) Subject to subsection (q)(6)(B), the court may communicate with the foreign court in advance of a joint hearing, with or without counsel being present, to establish guidelines for the orderly making of submissions and rendering of decisions by the courts, and to coordinate and resolve any procedural, administrative or preliminary matters relating to the joint hearing; and
  - (E) Subject to subsection (q)(6)(B), the court, subsequent to the joint hearing, may communicate with the foreign court, with or without counsel present, for the purpose of determining whether coordinated orders could be made by both courts to coordinate and resolve any procedural or non-substantive matters relating to the joint hearing.

- (9) The court may, except upon proper objection on valid grounds and then only to the extent of such objection, recognize and accept as authentic the provisions of statutes, statutory or administrative regulations, and rules of court of general application applicable to the proceedings in the foreign jurisdiction without the need for further proof or exemplification thereof.
- (10) The court may, except upon proper objection on valid grounds and then only to the extent of such objection, accept that orders made in the proceedings in the other jurisdiction were duly and properly made or entered on or about their respective dates and accept that such orders require no further proof or exemplification for purposes of the proceedings before it, subject to all such proper reservations as in the opinion of the court are appropriate regarding proceedings by way of appeal or review that are actually pending in respect of any such orders.
- (11) The court may coordinate proceedings before it with proceedings in another State by establishing a service list that may include parties that are entitled to receive notice of proceedings before the court in the other State (“non-resident parties”). The court may also order that all notices, applications, motions, and other materials served for purposes of the proceedings before the court be provided to or served on the non-resident parties by making such materials available electronically in a publicly accessible system or by facsimile transmission, certified or registered mail or delivery by courier, or in such other manner as may be directed by the court.
- (12) The foreign administrator or a representative of creditors in the proceedings in the other State or an authorized representative of the court in the other State may appear and be heard by the court without thereby becoming subject to the jurisdiction of the court.
- (13) The court may direct that any stay of proceedings affecting the parties before it shall, subject to further order of the court, not apply to applications or motions brought by such parties before the other court or that relief be granted to permit such parties to bring such applications or motions before the other court on such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate. Court-to-court communications in accordance with subsections (q)(5) and (6) hereof may take place if an application or motion brought before the court affects or might affect issues or proceedings in the court in the other State.
- (14) A court may communicate with a foreign court or with an authorized representative of such court in the manner prescribed by this rule for purposes of coordinating and harmonizing proceedings before it with proceedings in the other jurisdiction regardless of the form of the proceedings before it or before the foreign court wherever there is commonality among the issues and/or the parties in the proceedings.
- (15) Directions issued by the court under this rule are subject to such amendments, modifications, and extensions as may be appropriate for the purposes described in this rule and to reflect the changes and developments from time to time in the proceedings before it and before the foreign court. Any directions may be supplemented, modified, and restated from time to time and such modifications, amendments, and restatements should become effective upon being accepted by both courts.
